Our trip to Ireland is based in Dublin where the people are long known for hospitality and their love of music, literature and a full measure of ‘craic’ (fun). You can walk the River Liffey; view the 9th century Book of Kells at Trinity College; stop in the National Museum to see amazing gold Viking treasures. You could see a play at the Abbey Theatre; visit the trendy Temple Bar area and more. The first day tour takes you across the border to Northern Ireland with a local guide where you’ll see Giant’s Causeway and stop in Belfast. The second day’s tour will be headlined by the world-famous Cliffs of Moher with stops in small picturesque villages along the way.

North Wales

21-23 February

See North Wales distinct regional identity with its miles of seacoast, Snowdonia mountains, rushing streams and waterfalls and secluded villages, it is one of Britain’s most beautiful locations. The North Wales weekend is regularly ranked by Harlaxton students as one of the top excursions. Enjoy walks along the strand (beach), down the 2,295-ft Llandudno Pier, or up to the Great Orme Park. We drive through the gorgeous Snowdonia National Park and stop at Llechwedd Slate Caverns where you will be taken on a tour of the mines. You will travel into the belly of Llechwedd’s mountain on the steepest cable railway in Britain, and a stop at the spectacular Swallow Falls.

Engulf yourself in the rich city of Bath’s natural hot springs that led the Romans to build a temple to Minerva Sulis and to establish a network of mineral baths. Bath is also well known for its outstanding Georgian architecture, including the must-see Royal Crescent and The Assembly Rooms. The novelist Jane Austen lived in Bath for several years and set two of her novels in the city. We also stop at the very beautiful Salisbury Cathedral, home of one of the four original copies of Magna Carta before making our way to the iconic Stonehenge.

Explore Edinburgh where you can walk down the Mile with stops at the modern Scottish Parliament buildings, the Palace of Holyroodhouse (the Queen’s Edinburgh residence), St Giles Cathedral (home church of Presbyterianism), or perhaps the Whisky Heritage Centre. The traditional climb up Arthur’s Seat will give you expansive views over the city and out to the Firth of Forth. Visit the Grassmarket and New Town for shops and cafés. The Scottish National Gallery has an outstanding collection, and the Botanic Garden is one of the best in Great Britain; both are free to visit. As the location where J.K. Rowling wrote most of the Harry Potter books, there are plenty of Potter-themed places to explore. Don’t forget to try haggis, buy a kilt, or source a traditional tartan scarf.
