

Choosing your Harlaxton courses Fall 2019

When studying at Harlaxton you must enrol on a minimum of 12 credits of study.

British Studies (6 credits) is mandatory and all students are required to take this. Lectures take place on Monday and Wednesday 8.30 – 9.30 am and seminars follow either at 9.40 am or 11 am. No other classes, with the exception of nursing, take place at these times.

At least two other courses must be chosen. These are listed under Course Descriptions. Unless otherwise indicated these are 3 credit courses.

Course are grouped together in blocks with all courses in a block being scheduled at the same time.

To avoid timetable clashes you may chose only ONE course from any one block.

The chart below shows the days and times when groups of courses are scheduled – remember, you may choose just one course from any individual block.

N.B. Nursing courses take place across the week, Monday – Thursday. It is only possible to take one of the optional single credit courses with Nursing.
