BRIT 201: THE BRITISH EXPERIENCE FROM THE CELTS TO THE PRESENT DAY (weeks 1 – 7) (3)
BRIT 202: THE BRITISH EXPERIENCE FROM THE CELTS TO THE PRESENT DAY (weeks 8 – 14 (3)
British Studies Faculty, Harlaxton College
This course, taught only at Harlaxton College and required of all students, is an interdisciplinary introduction to the broad cultural and historical developments within British society from the earliest times to the present. It explains the political development of the various nations that make up the British Isles and the changing nature of the often fractious relationship between and among those countries: England, Scotland, Wales, and (Northern) Ireland. The central theme of the course is national identity; it is concerned with and seeks to explain the nature of Britain historically, politically, culturally, and intellectually. The course seeks to help students understand the protracted and difficult process by which the United Kingdom became unified. Elements of the course are integrated into the College’s wide range of extracurricular activities, including the travel program. Through this holistic approach students are encouraged to reflect on concepts of identity—national and individual—and the challenges that people and nations face in an increasingly globalized world. As part of the wider Harlaxton experience, the British Studies program helps students take an important step toward becoming responsible global citizens. UE Outcomes 2 & 3 and Overlays A & E.

*NOTE: BRIT 201/202 is the basic model for British Studies consisting of 28 lectures and seminars and two course-related field trips.

 NOTE: UE students must take both BRIT 201 and BRIT 202

UE Outcome 9.

HISTORY 318: THE FIRST WORLD WAR (3)
Professor Edward Bujak, Harlaxton College
This course examines the causes, course, and consequences of the First World War. It traces the roots of the war to the European power politics of the 1870s, and follows the consequences of the war through an examination of the treaties that ended it. In studying the war itself, the course focuses on the speeches and propaganda that both justified going to war in 1914 and its prolongation up to 1918 regardless of the rising cost. The cost was borne by the millions of men who fought, died, or were wounded in the trenches and whose written testimonies will be set against the speeches and treaties that encapsulated the war aims of the “great” powers. Prerequisite: Sophomore standing or History 112 World History since 1500, or HIST 317 Europe 1800 – 1890, or HIST 381 Modern Britain: Challenge, Continuity and Change 1815 to present, or permission of instructor.
*NOTE: History 318 may be taken for honors credit subject to approval by the instructor and the student’s home campus honors program. Students taking this course for honors credit will also be expected to consider how the memory of WW I continues to affect modern Britain.
